

Health and Safety in the Office

As San Francisco and California begins to safely re-open, new rules and regulations are in effect and may be confusing. TMA SF Connects has developed two resource sheets, one for employers and another for commuters, to help navigate these new guidance measures.

As of June 15, 2021, the state of California has put into place a new, limited COVID-19 guidance. Based on increasing vaccination rates and the success of the City and County of San Francisco, the rest of the Bay Area, and the State in containing the virus that causes COVID-19, this Order lifts local capacity limits on business and other sectors, local physical distancing requirements, and many other previous health and safety restrictions. Click Here to read more.

Please see the additional resources below for employers to reopen their offices safely and effectively.

- California Department of Industrial Relations: COVID-19 Prevention Emergency Temporary Standards \(ETS\) FAQ
- CDC Guidance for COVID-19 (documents categorized by audiences)
- CDC Employer Information for Office Buildings
- State of California Assistance for Businesses and COVID-19 Management
- State of California Safely Reopening Measures
- City of San Francisco Signage Toolkit (available in multiple languages)

Click Here for the latest information from the State of California. For vaccination information, please refer to our previous resource sheet.